

Corinthian Aryballos

Date
650-550 BC

Primary Maker
Corinthian, Greek

Medium
terracotta

Description
The clay is a pale yellowish-buff with decoration in black glaze with added red glaze and incision. Two warriors are shown in a battle scene. Both are armed with Plumed helmets round shields, and shields. On the right, the warrior wears a short tunic that covers his torso and upper thighs.

Dimensions
Overall: 2 11/16 in. (6.8 cm) circumference: 7 7/8 in. (20 cm)