

Fountain

Date

1999

Primary Maker

Patty Chang

Medium

master digital beta | tape

Description

Fountain is a video that originated from a live performance of drinking water from a mirror. The image of confronting one’s own image recalls Narcissus, the Greek god that fell in love with his own image without recognizing it as his own, in some way being a splitting of the interior and exterior selves. In Fountain the image attempts to become whole again by drinking in the image of itself.

Dimensions

running time: 5:30 min