Basic Detail Report

NEW YORK CITY September 23, 1935. Dear Charlie, Lately, when I read The new book on Céganne, and got all The glimpses of Paris and the French country that we like so much, and the home life There) and the artists, and that prestest artist of them all, I thought you ought to read the book-as it tills about him more intimate I Thought you ought to - by than any other one does. But I manted to keep " Copy. So - Thinking that you and your brother had done The most of anyone in America to bre about an understanding of Cezanne - I got anothe Copy for you, and am sending it of today. Think Eugenie will like it too. got another Sugenie will like it too. Ne are happy to be home. The place is very nearly to rights and we have started painting. Do come in soon and see The results of it. Mith good wishes to you both, yours cordially Malter Vach. A.1.132

Dimensions

sheet: 7 x 6 in. (17.8 x 15.2 cm)

Letter from Walter Pach to Charles Prendergast (148 West 72nd Street, New York City)

Date

September 23, 1935

Primary Maker

Walter Pach

Medium

paper

Description

Letterhead: Walter Pach/ 148 West 72nd Street/ New York City. a single one sided sheet. No envelope.